Mach 7 Technologies Establishes New Headquarters in Burlington, VT

Burlington, VT – June 4, 2010 – Mach 7 Technologies (M7T), a global provider of flexible, PACS-neutral healthcare image management solutions, has relocated its global headquarters from suburban Chicago to greater Burlington, Vermont. The new office location serves as the company's base for Americas' sales and professional service operations, and finance and administration. The new office also houses global product management and strategic R&D functions.

Located at 245 South Park Drive in Colchester, the new Vermont headquarters joins M7T's Mumbai, India operation, home to the India sales and service team as well as its research and development engineers. Asia (ex-India) and Middle East sales and service is based in Singapore and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. A growing network of distributors, system integrators, and image management vendors extend Mach 7 Technology's reach into India, Southeast Asia and the Middle East. The company plans further distributor expansion into Western Europe and the Far East in 2010 - 2011.
